God in the Midst
Psalm 42

Do you remember where you were on important dates?

Some of you remember where you were the day JFK was shot or man landed on the moon. Chuck remembers where he was the day Elvis died!

I was in the living room in my house when on September 11, 1985, Rose broke Ty Cobb's all-time hits record with his 4,192nd hit, a single to left-center field off San Diego Padres pitcher Eric Show. I remember him hugging his son. Great moment.

When the Federal building in OKC bombed I was in Ohio in Della Hartong's house.

9-11 I had breakfast with a guy from the Radio Station about doing an ad for our church. When we walked back into the church we set in the Church nursery when we watched the events unfold.

Today we will be reminded of God's protection and presence in the midst of life's most difficult circumstances. What does God do during our trials? What are we to do while these difficult times are upon us? We will examine God's word to find answers to these questions as we seek to find stability in the midst of tragedy.

What does God do?

- 1 – He sees our plight.
- 2 – He enters the fray.
- 3 – He works in and through us.

What do we do?

- 1 – We meet God above it
- 2 – We learn from it.
- 3 – We enter it.
